Yes, you can have it all! Tucked away behind mature tropical landscaping and stretching across an expanse of more than 250 feet of sandy bayfront shoreline, 139 Gimpy Gulch is a rare Islamorada estate designed for those who value privacy, boating, sunsets and effortless luxury in equal measure. This one-of-a-kind compound captures the spirit of the Keys with a level of scale and exclusivity seldom found on the islands. Arrive through private gates to discover a secluded retreat where every detail has been curated for relaxed coastal living. For boaters, a new boat dock offers immediate access to Florida Bay and immediate Atlantic Ocean access through nearby Snake Creek. This one-of-kind package also includes a 34' Edgewater with twin 400 hp Yahasmas, a pair of Waverunners and UTV tow vehicle, plus fishing rods, kayaks, paddle boards, and bicycles to enjoy everything Islamorada has to offer. The 100 ft. long resort-style pool with large spa create the centerpiece of the property, surrounded by multiple lounging areas, outdoor kitchen with covered bar, shady terraces and intimate gathering spaces. The estate's flexible layout includes two homes--a 2/2.5 with ground level living, and a 3/3.5 tri-level--plus a 1/1.5 media house with 2-car garage, all with classic island character. Both homes offer chef kitchens with high-end appliances including SubZero and La Cornue. Not only is this estate ready for fun, it's also
